Yuuki Konno[1] (金野 裕希, Konno Yūki, born May 17, 1994) is a Japanese Wikimedian.

Early life

Yuuki Konno was born on May 17, 1994 at 1:56 a.m., at Fukuoka Hospital in Ninohe, Iwate, and raised in Esashi. His mother, Yūko (née Jūmonji), was a nurse, and father, Kōji Konno, a medical assistant and later labor union activist.[2] He has an older brother, Songsknow.

Yuuki started using a computer at the age of two, when his father bought him a Panasonic U1 Pro FW-U1P609 word processor. He learned kanji through its kana–kanji conversion and read through the Great Chinese–Japanese Dictionary. He was bought a Fujitsu FMV Deskpower MV205 FMVM52053 computer at age four and played games including Puyo Puyo for Windows 95 and Diablo.[3]

Early career

In 2003, his father signed up for Yahoo! BB and Yuuki went online at age nine. He started his career as a troll on TheBBS (https://web.archive.org/web/20031022181655/http://thebbs.jp/) under the handle Aku no Zurihaki[4] (悪のずりはき, lit. Zurihaki of evil).[5] He later renamed himself Seizan. He learned HTML, CSS, and JavaScript and created a browser exploit and security website.[6] Yuuki gained widespread attention in Virtual Farm (https://web.archive.org/web/20040407090500/http://www.comitia.jp/farm/) (バーチャル農場, Virtual Nōjō), a browser-based farming game created by RCC,[7] after lying that his money was stolen by others. He became known as "The Boy Who Cried Wolf" (狼少年, Ōkami Shōnen).[8] He found cross-site scripting vulnerability on the game's site and spread an XSS worm.

In 2005, Yuuki dropped out of Iwayadō Elementary School and founded Yuuki Uninc. (ゆうき任意団体, Yūki Nin'i Dantai), a non-profit, unincorporated organization.[9] In 2006, he was promoted to full professor at Wikiversity.

In 2007, at age 13, Yuuki met a man named "Linux User" who taught him Debian GNU/Linux and Perl in Monachat (https://web.archive.org/web/20040706041848/http://monachat.dyndns.org/monachat6.html) (もなちゃと, Monachato), a metaverse with ASCII art avatars. On September 15, 2007, Yuuki rose to stardom after launching a massive DDoS attack against Monachat under the handle Momakuru (もま☆くる).[10]
